DIRECTIONS

- 17) If there are a number of substantial holders with similar or related relevant interests (eg. a corporation and its related corporations, or the members and trustee of an entity trust), the names could be included in an associate to the form. If the relevant interests of a group of persons are essentially similar, they may be referred to through the terms of a specifically named group or the membership of each group, with the names and addresses of members included in paragraph 7 of the form.
- 18) See the definition of "associate" in section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- 19) See the definition of "relevant interest" in sections 608 and 618(1) of the Corporations Act 2001.
- 20) The voting shares of a company constitute one class unless divided into separate classes.
- 21) The total number of votes attached to all the voting shares in the company or voting interests in the interests of any trust the person or an associate has a relevant interest in.
- 22) The person's votes divided by the total votes in the body corporate or scheme multiplied by 100.
- 23) Include details of:
- any relevant agreement or other arrangements by which the relevant interest was acquired. If section 611(4) applies, a copy of any document setting out the terms of any relevant agreement, and a statement by the person giving full and accurate details of any contract, scheme or arrangement, must accompany this form together with a written statement verifying the contract, scheme or arrangement; and
 - any qualifications of the power of a person to exercise, control the exercise of, or influence the exercise of, the voting shares or interests in the corporation to which the relevant interest relates (including clearly the particular restrictions to which the qualification applies).
- See the definition of "relevant agreement" in section 3 of the Corporations Act 2001.
- 24) If the substantial holder is unable to categorise the identity of the person (eg. if the relevant interest arises because of an option with "unknown").
- 25) Details of the considerations which include any and all benefits, money (or other) that any person from whom a relevant interest was acquired has, or may, become entitled to receive in relation to the acquisition. Details must be included even if the benefit is conditional on the happening or the of a contingency. Details must be included of any benefit paid on behalf of the substantial holder to its associate in relation to the acquisition, even if they are not paid directly to the person from whom the relevant interest was acquired.
